Seeing God Change Lives Through Me.

September 2022

Service time - Sunday 10 am

Something New

In Isaiah 43:19 we read, "Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it?"

Friends, spring is in the air. The days are warming up and people are getting about.

I love the seasons of life. A season to reset, restart, begin or finish. A season to renew and go deeper. A season to reflect and give thanks. A season to make friends and regather. A season to pause and say, "Wow, God is good!"

In September we can give thanks for new beginnings as UBC celebrates our Church Anniversary. In 1905 a seed of faith was planted to grow strong, and become a place of influence and make a difference. To see lives change, make disciples, grow and influence the Kingdom of God. A place to encounter Jesus and be spiritually renewed. A place to receive forgiveness, grace, healing and restoration.

In September we also celebrate Father's Day. A day we not only connect with friends and family but acknowledge, honour and appreciate the men in our lives, past and present, for the role they have played.

These events remind us to continue to be all God has called us to be with hope and the expectation of something new!

Today in this fresh and new season, what is God revealing to you?

What is God asking of you? In what ways do you see His unfolding purpose energise you toward His will and good pleasure?

Pastor Louis

Growing deeper relationships with Christ and each other.

We are celebrating September in style!

As a church family we have so much to be thankful for.
We have an amazing church community of people who Love Jesus and seek to see God change lives through us.

We start September celebrating Father's Day. A day where we lift up, acknowledge and honour all the males in God's house from the youngest to the not-so-young.

We celebrate our UBC anniversary on the 25th of September with a BBQ lunch after the service.

Then on the evening of Tuesday the 27th of September we anticipate a renewal of hearts with the guest ministry of Dr Kameel Majdali. Kameel's ministry is titled "Turning the Corner". Kameel will be speaking about worldwide upheaval and how you and I can have hope and be the Hope!

BAPTIST WOMEN

Last year over 17,000 boxes were filled in Tasmania and went to children in Fiji and PNG. This not only brings great joy to the children but gives them an opportunity to learn that Jesus loves them.

Globally last year over 3.6 million children enrolled in The Greatest Journey (a 12 week discipleship course offered to many of the children who receive boxes - with parents consent). Over 1.4 million children made decisions to follow Christ.

If you haven't already, consider filling a box to bless a child and give them the opportunity to learn Jesus loves them.

Boxes need to be in no later than end of October.

We plan to have Dedication Sunday on Sunday the 16th of October so if possible please bring your boxes then.

Father's Day is an opportunity to honour fatherhood and the influence that fathers have in society. In parts of Europe, it has been celebrated since the Middle Ages. In the USA, Father's Day was celebrated for the first time in 1910. Father's Day wasn't originally well received in the 1910s and 1920s in Australia as many thought it was either unnecessary or undermining of a father's assumed "supremacy" as head of the household. Australian newspapers at the time printed satirical poems and critical editorials of the new "American" tradition. It wasn't until the 1930s that Father's Day became popularly celebrated in Australia.

I have been fortunate to have a great father who I have always looked up to and respected. Dad was always a positive role model and very supportive. He is a wealth of knowledge and always a great help with any project / task that was required. Whenever I ask Dad for advice, he always has some good, useful wisdom to share. I have shared many fond memories with my dad growing up like fishing / croc spotting down the river in Weipa (far north Queensland), family trip to the tip of Australia (Cape York), playing tennis with Dad, watching movies with Dad, playing 500 with Dad or just chatting. For as long as I can remember Dad has always been there to support me and I am truly grateful for him.

While I'm sure many of us have had a great earthly father, I appreciate that not everyone has necessarily had a positive earthly father experience. Be assured that God our heavenly Father cares for you deeply and wants the very best for you and quite possibly has placed fatherlike figures in your life to help you at specific times.

What does the Bible say about Fathers?

- Fathers lead / teach / instruct – Genesis 18:19, Ephesians 6:4, Proverbs 1:8, 4:1-4, 4:10-13, 22:6, Deuteronomy 6:1-9.
- Fathers care / love – Psalm 103:13, Luke 15:20, Deuteronomy 1:29-31, Proverbs 3:11-12, Ephesians 5:25-33, Colossians 3:19-21.
- Fathers provide stability – 1 Corinthians 16:13-14, 1 Timothy 3:2-5.
- Fathers take pride in their kids – Proverbs 23:24, 3 John 1:4.

In summary, Father's Day is a great opportunity to celebrate the deep, God-given desire to respect and love the honourable men in our lives (whether they are your earthly father or a fatherlike figure in your life). These are the men who have shaped us, invested in us, supported us, been patient with us and given us the love and stability we have needed to become the people we are today. Give thanks to God for these people today and show them how much you care and appreciate them.

ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY

Sunday 25th September
Celebrating 117 Years

With thankful hearts we celebrate God's goodness over the past 117 years.

We give honour to our past, embrace who we are and joyfully look forward to seeing God at work in our future.

After the service, tea & coffee will be served.

We then invite you to stay for a free barbeque lunch as we continue to celebrate and enjoy being part of God's family.

Prayer Focus for September

Ask of me, and I will make the nations your inheritance; the whole wide world will be your possession.

Psalm 2:8 (Complete Jewish Bible)

I have heard recently that prayer is bending our will to God's. It is surrendering and inclining our hearts to what God is asking and calling us towards (2 Chronicles 7:14), while also releasing a presence and encounter atmosphere. In September, let's shift the focus towards our inheritance by focusing each week on a one-time prayer focus, asking the Holy Spirit to lead and deepen us to deep uttering prayers. Romans 8:26

Week 1

PRAYER - ask of me

Friends, I ask you to lift up in prayer our mission collectively. Our calling is to step into a renewal of life and faith for our future, and to reimagine us as a faith community spiritually and supernaturally. Ask God to reveal and stir our hearts, leading us to repentance and awakening His kingdom in us! Make it personal: What is one prayer you could pray that God cannot ignore?

Prayer Focus for September

Week 2

PROMISE - and I will

How about we pray in a way that not only invites God's promises but transforms our asking? What kind of praying could open up heaven according to our high calling? In what ways do you believe God will release his word in your situation? Remember, no matter how many promises God has made, they are 'Yes' in Christ'. Prayers to free you and show you how to become all he requires. Make it personal: Pray in a way that unleashes a heart of self - for the heart of God.

Week 3

POTENTIAL - make the nations

We should never consider prayer as twisting God's hand or heart. We serve the God and creator of the universe. Jesus taught us to think big! Pray faith-filled, daring, stretching prayers. Why pray prayers that the neighbour up the street could answer? Make it personal.

POWER - your inheritance.

Paul said, "I can do all things through Christ, who gives me strength". The devil hates that verse. If only we knew what was at our disposal. The world, the devil, has caused many to become timid. Why not pray powerful prayers? James says our prayers can be powerful and effective. "The whole wide world will be your possession". Make it personal. What type of praying could release your spirit to encounter Jesus and release the power of the Holy Spirit in you? (Acts 10:38)

Pastor Louis.

Sunday 11th September

Ulverstone Anglican Church - 2pm

This event, returning for the first time since COVID, is designed to be a fun and entertaining way of fundraising for the Bible Society's mission projects to provide Bibles and education overseas.
